Firebox offers Money Monsters

Burping robotic money-boxes

by Amy-Mae Elliott published on 24 October 2007

Gobble and MeMe Money Monsters are talkative little coin banks that "eat" your shrapnel and folding whilst making daft comments.

Simply drop in your coins or load in your banknotes and watch their eyes flash and their ears wiggle - and when they've said their piece, they'll let out an almighty belch. Which is nice.

£19.95, in blue or pink.
