Prickie badge buttons for geeks

Badge-tastic

by Amy-Mae Elliott published on 30 October 2007

This site rocks our geek world. Prickie offers literally thousands of badges - over 15,000 in fact.

Needless to say among the cool designs are a fair few of interest to those of the geek persuasion.

The site's also really fun to navigate, good-looking and as far as we've played on, user-friendly.

Badges are $2.99 each with large purchase discounts, and they ship worldwide. Check it out - link below.
