Hyundai announces 46-inch full HD 3D TV

Yet another reason to move to Japan...

by Amy-Mae Elliott published on 30 November 2007

Hyundai IT has announced the development of a 46-inch full HD 3D LCD TV.

This gorgeous-looking product is going on the market for the launch of 3D digital broadcasting due in Japan next month.

No pricing revealed, but you'd just have to, wouldn't you?
