The online charity shop - ideal for Christmas

by Ian Hughes published on 14 December 2007

'Tis the season of goodwill toward men and all that, so what better way to help your fellow mankind than to do a bit of your Christmas shopping at a charity shop.

That used to mean locking elbows with the blue rinse brigade while quietly gagging on the musty smell of decades old tweed suits. But not anymore.

Oxfam have gone all Noughties on us and launched an online charity shop. You can browse the best of what they've got to offer and buy securely online.

You've still got time to order as their deadline for Christmas delivery is Sunday.

So, do some good - go shopping.
