Vertu offers "Mixed Metal" Constellation

Another phone you can't afford and probably don't actually want...

by Amy-Mae Elliott published on 12 December 2007

Vertu has released a new version of their Constellation model, the "Mixed Metal" edition.

Not as base as it sounds, it is primarily stainless steel but has 18k yellow gold features.

Other luxury touches come in via the ceramic keypad and leather finish.

Pricing not revealed...
