Archos 605 WiFi Harry Potter special edition announced

Limited release to be bundled with pre-loaded films

by Amy-Mae Elliott published on 17 December 2007

Warner Bros and Archos have teamed up to produce an Archos 605 WiFi that will be available pre-loaded with Harry Potter films.

The special edition 20GB Archos 605 will be pre-loaded with the first four films while the fifth, "The Order of the Phoenix", users will have to download via the Archos Content Portal when the DVD release becomes available.

To be launched as a limited edition, for £189.99, Potter fans who want to get their hands on one will need to head to select Blockbuster outlets nationwide from January.
