Adidas does Star Wars-themed trainers

Yoda and Darth flavoured footwear

Achingly cool, the adidas Consortium Superstar 1 Force Star Wars "Yoda" and "Darth Vader" trainers were released at the very end of 2007 in limited numbers of only 800 each.

That goes some way to explain the high price tag ($300) although we think it would be worth it to have small scale lightsabre battles with the green and red-tipped laces.
