Introducing the "LapDome" tent for your laptop

For geeks abroad...

by Amy-Mae Elliott published on 16 January 2008

...We say abroad as it's unlikely we'll get UK sun so bright as to bother your productivity levels.

But grumbles about the climate aside, may we present, with the help of the colourful graphics below, the "LapDome" outdoor office.

Wow indeed! And she does look more pretty with the LapDome - and it's not just 'cos she's facing away from camera.

Almost unbelievably this product is available in four different versions, the "Planet Rambler" and "Business", the "Collapsible" and the "Junior".

We're not sure which one is pictured, but the "cell" phone pocket on the side sure is a nice touch...
