Samsung has launched the a pink version of its 5-megapixel camera phone, the G600.

Although the model has already been superseded by the 3G G800 that hasn't stopped the company launching the new colour in time for Valentine's Day.

The Samsung G600 Pink will be available in the UK from January 2008 from The Carphone Warehouse, O2, Orange, Phones 4U, T-Mobile and Virgin Mobile.

Key features of the phone include a 5-megapixel camera, 2.2-inch LCD screen with 16 million colours and Bluetooth v.2 connectivity.
