Lime green is fast becoming the colour for Spring 2008 don't you know? No, we didn't either.

But to make sure you're up with all things colour co-ordinated for the new season, we feel we should let you know the new lime and white Sony Ericsson K660i is available exclusively on 3.

The phone is an HSDPA-enabled handset with a 2-megapixel camera and a focus on bringing the web to your pocket. Available from free.
