Brando launches USB LED light stick

Get your message across

by Amy-Mae Elliott published on 18 March 2008

Brando's 32-LED light stick is battery-powered, but offers USB hook up to your PC in order to download your message.

Up to 85 characters can be stored on the wand, then displayed in the air, as if by magic, as you wave it back and forth.

$22, available now.
