

<http://www.pocket-lint.com/news/13508/channel-4-content-on-itunes>

C4 content comes to iTunes

Watch Shameless, Skins and Spaced on the go

by Katie Scott published on 18 March 2008

Nearly a month to the day since the Beeb announced it is going to make some of its shows available through iTunes, Channel 4 has gone and done the same.

C4 shows including Shameless, Skins, Teachers, Peep Show, Spaced, and Monarchy are all available now through Apple's iTunes.

Each episode costs £1.89 and C4 executives add that both current and previous series have been made available of some of the shows.

"Digital technology transforms our audiences' ability to create, access and engage with our content, making it easier for us to identify the best new British creativity and bring it to a wider UK audience and catalyse a new generation of digital media production companies", said Channel 4 chief executive Andy Duncan upon the announcement.

