Yep, it's pink

Medion has launched the GoPal E3215 "Glamour Edition", a 3.5-inch portable navigation device that claims to combine function with style - in a "purse-sized", pearlescent pink design.

Slim and compact at 1.7cm thick, the E3215 offers a 3.5-inch full colour TFT touchscreen display that is said to be clear and easy to read as well as use.

Preloaded with maps for Western Europe with a choice of arrow, 2D or 3D displays. TMC traffic updates are included at no extra cost, there's POIs and Berlitz travel guide with detailed information on 50 of Europe's capital cities.

Other features include auto-adjust for night use, a speed camera database with major route speed limit warnings provided and there's pedestrian and cyclist modes too.

Complete with a "matching carry case", car kit and stylus, the limited edition Medion GoPal E3215 Glamour Edition will be available from the beginning of June in larger Sainsbury's stores nationwide and from Medion's online shop priced at £149.99.
