LaCie has announced that it has doubled burn speeds to 4x for its d2 Blu-ray Drive and has updated the aluminium alloy case and software suite.

The drive records, rewrites and reads 25GB or 50GB BD-R (recordable) and BD-RE (rewritable), as well as DVD±RW DL and CD±RW. The LaCie d2 Blu-ray Drive comes fully equipped with Roxio burning software and dual FireWire 400 and USB 2.0 interfaces.

LaCie d2 Blu-ray Drives come with Roxio software including Easy Media Creator for Windows, and Toast Titanium for Mac.

LaCie d2 Blu-ray Drives are available now and widely available via LaCie's specialised dealer network at the suggested retail price of £469 plus VAT.
