iTunes Festival announced

London line-up revealed

by Amy-Mae Elliott published on 2 June 2008

Apple has announced that James Blunt, McFly, N.E.R.D., The Zutons and Chaka Khan are among the acts confirmed to play at the second iTunes Festival: London this summer.

Every night in July these artists, and others, will perform live sets in front of 1000 fans at the Koko venue in Camden.

Each performance will be recorded and sold exclusively on all 22 iTunes Stores worldwide.

Other acts scheduled to appear include Death Cab For Cutie, The Ting Tings, Feeder, CSS, I Was A Cub Scout, Jamie Lidell, and Pendulum, with more artists still to be announced.

Further information on this year's line-up and how to win free tickets, can be found at: www.ituneslive.co.uk.
