Brando has launched the sport in-ear MP3 player that goes on sale in red or blue for $22.

Offering 1GB of storage, the plastic player wraps around your head for a cable-free, handsfree option for outdoor types.

Weighing at 20 grams, it's certainly lightweight enough for the job and boasts a flexible design for comfortable wear.

Charged up via USB, the playback time is a claimed 8 hours of music and it supports MP3, WMA and WAV files via plug and play transfer.

Suitable for use with Windows XP and Vista (sorry Mac-lovers) it's on sale now for $22 plus shipping.
