Speedo launches waterproof MP3 player

IRiver-made Aquabeat to launch in Japan

by Amy-Mae Elliott published on 30 June 2008

The Speedo Aquabeat, made by iRiver, offers swimmers and other water-babies 1GB of storage, 9 hours playback on one charge, come in three colours, and weighs 35 grams.

With the ability to work down to 3 metres below and floaty-goodness too, the Japanese launch price comes in at 14,800 yen, which is around the £70 mark.
