USB powered animal massagers

Why oh why?

by Katie Scott published on 2 July 2008

USB tat is always worth a giggle, and maybe even sometimes worth the cash if you want to out do work colleagues in the "who's got the silliest toy on their desk" front.

Well here's a contender - the $10 USB Animal Massager.

The dog, panda or pig can massage your aching feet or back and are powered by USB, so you can get away with it at work.

But just think how daft you'll look.
