Nokia N95 gets blinged

Spare £10,000 burning a hole in your pocket?

by Katie Scott published on 7 July 2008

You'd blind half the room when you whip out this little beauty - the diamond encrusted Nokia N95 from Continental Mobiles.

The handset features a smooth Sterling silver front panel that has been festooned with 4.42 carat of brilliant-cut, VS1 quality, naturally mined diamonds.

And it's only £10,000. We'll take two.
