PHOTOS: Separated at birth - Nokia N95 and Samsung i8510

Which is which?

by Stuart Miles published on 21 August 2008

Samsung has officially launched the i8510 8-megapixel camera phone in the UK on Thursday.

The multimedia handset, which also happens to be able to make phone calls will sport a digital camera with 8-megapixels, the first commercially available across the UK.

However we can't help feel that we've seen the handset before?

This is a gallery of official images from Nokia and Samsung of the Nokia N95 8GB and the Samsung i8510.

However we've removed the logos. Can you tell which is which?
