Vodafone announces Christmas line-up

Handsets and offers revealed

by Amy-Mae Elliott published on 18 November 2008

Vodafone has announced its Christmas handset line-up and offers, boasting 16 exclusives within its Yuletide portfolio.

With the new BlackBerry Storm topping the list, and the Dell Inspiron Mini 9 netbook with built-in mobile broadband, the company is clearly hoping the thought of shiny gadgets to play with on Christmas morning will tempt the UK's cash-conscious consumers.

Pay as you talk customers will get a free gift of a digital photo frame with purchases of the Samsung G600, Nokia 6500 Classic or the Sony Ericsson K770i.

Ian Shepherd, consumer director for Vodafone UK, says: "This year's Christmas range features a great mix of phones at a price that will please everyone. Many of our exclusive mobiles will make ideal gifts especially as several will come with a free digital photo frame".

The list of phones available to Christmas shoppers is as follows:

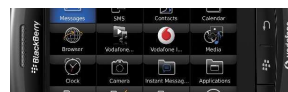

Pay as you talk:

Sony Ericsson K770i - exclusive in pink or silver - Cyber-shot camera phone, £80 when bought with £20 Top Up

Sony Ericsson W350 - exclusive black and purple colourway - a music clamshell, £60

Sony Ericsson W910i Havana Gold - exclusive - £100

Samsung Steel - exclusive - 3-megapixel (MP) camera phone with autofocus and video capture, £80 (also available on contract)
