Three new PSP colours confirmed for Europe

Get ready for Radiant Red, Mystic Silver and Pearl White

by Verity Burns published on 5 February 2009

Following the announcement of four new "carnival colour" PSPs for Japan, Sony has now announced three new colours to be released in Europe.

As it turns out, we'll also be getting the "Radiant Red" colour confirmed for Japan as well, but accompanying it will be two much more muted colours of "Mystic Silver" and "Pearl White".

Sony has confirmed that the silver and white versions will be available this month, but gamers will have to wait until March to get their hands on the Radiant Red version.
