by Ben Crompton published on 2 April 2009

Carphone Warehouse is currently offering a host of pay-as-you-go deals on a variety of handsets.

For today's tech deal we have picked out a few choice items in the form of the LG Viewty and the Sony Ericsson W980.

The LG Viewty is being offered for £99.95 down from its previous price of £199.95.

Targeted at the cameraphone consumer it comes with a 5.1-megapixel camera, video player of 120fps and touchscreen.

The Sony Ericsson W980 comes with a 8GB internal memory which will hold up to around 2500 songs and touch-sensitive keys.

The phone slash MP3 player also has "shake control" which allows you to change tracks with a flick of the wrist and an FM radio.

We've got full reviews of both models on Pocket-lint so make sure you click through on the links below, whilst the link to the CPW will take you to their phone finder.
