Pocket-lint London meet up

Join us for a beer and all the gadget talk you can handle

by Stuart Miles published on 11 May 2009

Pocket-lint is having a London get together giving you a chance to meet the Pocket-lint team in a bar in Soho.

Whether you're an avid fan of the site, in public relations, work for a technology-related company or are a journalist, now is your chance to join us in person.

What's Elliott really like? How annoying am I after a few beers? Can anyone cycle faster than Chris? And can you out-geek Duncan when it comes to music? These are just some potential insights you may get on the night.

In the true spirit of Pocket-lint, this isn't a big fancy shindig, nor is it an excuse to raise some cash on the sponsorship front, but merely a chance just to grab a beer (at your own expense) and talk gadgets.

So, we will be pitching up at the Alphabet bar on Beak Street (address details below) from 6pm on Wednesday 20 May and we look forward to seeing you there.

Alphabet Bar
61-63 Beak Street
London
W1F 9SL

So please feel free to join us.

Stuart

PS. If you want to let us know you are coming give us a shout via the feedback form so we can get an idea of numbers...
