Apple Store is down for WWDC keynote launches!

What will Phil Schiller announce?

by Amy-Mae Elliott published on 8 June 2009

We're on, as they say... As per usual proceedings, Apple's online store is now down for updating with that familiar, if unnecessary, yellow, "we'll be back soon" Post-It.

Is the iPhone 3GS real? Will we see an iPhone nano? Is the time right for a MacBook tablet? And, will a cameo by Steve Jobs be Schiller's "one more thing?"

Whatever happens on stage at San Fran, Pocket-lint will be bringing you all the news just as soon as we can formulate the appropriate sentences and upload pics.

There's a link below to our Apple tag homepage, hit that after 6pm and some F5-ing should bring you all the news you're after.
