Last chance to win an 8GB SanDisk Ultra II CompactFlash card

Short on memory?

by Ben Crompton published on 29 June 2009

Pocket-lint has teamed up with SanDisk to offer you the chance to win one of four 8GB SanDisk Ultra II CompactFlash cards.

These cards are said to be perfect for serious amateurs and professional photographers, offering a minimum of 15MB per second sequential read speed for ultra-fast image viewing and data transfer - ensuring, as SanDisk says, that you never miss that perfect shot.

Available in 2, 4 or 8GB, the Ultra II CompactFlash card is perfect for rugged conditions, with its durability supported by SanDisk's lifetime limited warranty.

The competition ends on the 31st so to be in with a chance of winning click through on the link below and answer the easy-peasy question.
