Carphone shows pink HTC Hero

Rose-tinted model due?

by Amy-Mae Elliott published on 7 July 2009

Carphone Warehouse's coming soon info page for the HTC Hero appears to show the handset in pink.

Whether this is an exclusive colour variant for the retailer or some poor colour balance we've been unable to find out, but the handset shown does look a distinctive salmon pink.

We have asked Carphone Warehouse for comment and will let you know more when we do.
