Money saving deals, offers and innovations

Televisions seem to dominate the home entertainment arena these days with ever bigger and brighter efforts hitting the market on a regular basis.

Spare a thought however, for its often forgotten, poorer cousin, the radio. So for today's tech deal we have a bargain on the Pure ONE Mini DAB effort, available from Argos for £24.99.

Especially relevant for any cricket fans without Sky - Test Match Special's Ashes coverage always being excellent - the radio received Pocket-lint's Hot Product Award with a 9/10 score and is quoted as being "a very likeable little radio with a good quality sound".

Features include a clock, 16 preset stations (8 DAB & 8 FM), LCD display and a headphone socket.

Available through the Argos online shop and although the home delivery service is currently out of stock, there's a store finder so you can pop down and pick one up yourself.
