Rose gold and pink diamond iPhone revealed

Pink, sparkly and £22k

by Amy-Mae Elliott published on 13 July 2009

Yet another uber-luxurious phone is on offer with the news that four craftsmen have created a the world's first 18ct solid rose gold iPhone 3GS complete with copious amounts of diamonds.

The luxury offering contains approximately 150 grams of 18ct rose gold, finished off with no less than 53 pink diamonds housed in the 18ct rose gold Apple logo.

The iPhone will go on sale at www.stuarthughes.com later this week priced at a mere £21,995.
