If you're dead keen on getting a Pentax Optio P80 or E80, but you just want to check whether or not it'll go with your winter wardrobe, then you're in the right place.

We were lucky enough to get hands-on with both models, to see the E80's extra-large buttons and the P80's mint colouring in person. The results are below. And above. Both handsets will be on the market in the first week of September.
