WEBSITE OF THE DAY - moo.com

Personalised stickers? Oh, yes please.

by Ian Hughes published on 27 July 2007

We love these. Upload your favourite photos and MOO will turn them into your very own stickers to stick just about anywhere. You can have up to 90 individual images rendered as a 22 x 22mm sticker and they bound into easy-to-carry booklets.

Fiendishly simple, fun and cheap too.

They can also do calling cards and note cards and ship to anywhere on the planet.

And no, we don't don't know where the MOO bit comes from either.
